BOOK SYNOPSIS

A pocket sized, symptom based book on ophthalmology which is designed to guide non-specialists towards efficient and safe diagnosis, and onward referral where necessary. A truly symptom-based book on ophthalmology - starts from the presenting complaint such as red eye, loss of vision, flashing lights or floating spots. Concise text and diagnostic flowcharts guide the reader towards correct diagnosis and management - ideal for the non-specialist whose main priority is not to miss serious disease. Pocket-sized format and plastic cover make it ideal for clinical situations. Illustrated in colour throughout. Gives guidance on who needs screening for eye disease.
