BOOK SYNOPSIS

Angela, Jane, Rohini, Cynthia: four women, seemingly as different as they can be, meet on a food blogging site and form a bond when they share recipes and their mutual desire to start life over, if only they could. But something they don't share is that they each have their own secret, secrets that play a great part in making them the women they are. Set aboard the RMS Queen Mary, considered to be one of the ten most haunted places in the United States, this is the story of four women who are surrounded by ghosts long before they ever set foot on a haunted ship. But the spirits they meet aboard The Queen Mary help them discover that there's always a chance to live, as long as one is alive. It is a tale of love, loss, redemption and divine female power.--Publisher.
